Come celebrate the Summer Library Program with free snowcones, carnival games, bounce house & more!

De Soto celebrated our Sesquicentennial (150th anniversary) on June 23, 2018. We are printing a book representing our town from its beginning in 1868 to today of about 170 pages. Please contact City Hall at 834-2233, to express your interest in obtaining a book.

Thank you from the Betterment Committee.
Thank you!!!

The De Soto Public Library would like to thank the Jensen family for their very generous donation in memory of De Soto resident and library supporter John Jensen. The funds were used to fund a technology project for the library that keeps us on the cutting edge of library services. Thank you for your generosity—he will be truly missed.

The De Soto Public Library would like to thank the Quarnstrom Family for their generous donation towards Children’s Literacy in honor of their grandmother, Dorothy Quarnstrom. This donation will go towards purchasing children’s pictures books and provide wonderful literacy opportunities for local families!
